EXPERIENCE

81 Technological Unit of the Military Intelligence – Backend Engineer

February 2019 - January 2022 (3 Years)

Designed and implemented a high-scale backend system from the ground up to support multiple IDF units.

Implemented a comprehensive CI/CD pipeline with GitLab and ArgoCD, providing extensive testing coverage, and reducing release cycles.

Acted as a key knowledge resource for team members, providing guidance for newcomers, and creating training plans.

81 Technological Unit of the Military Intelligence – Android R&D

January 2022- December 2022 (1 Year)

Researched a well-known app and exploited vulnerabilities through code, focusing on Java, OOP principles, and database analysis.

Kovrr – Cyber CRQ – Backend Engineer

November 2023 - Present (1 Year 4 Months)

Developed multiple integrations with cyber products, including Axonious, Tenable, Tanium, CrowdStrike, and more.

Developed and optimized asynchronous microservices using message queues and cloud services.

Built CI/CD pipelines and automated tests to improve bug detection and deployment speed.

Implemented robust error handling and logging mechanisms using ELK stack, reducing mean time to resolution for production issues by 40%.

Personal projects

Algo-trading software, working with IB-brokers API, on top of GCP, and using Python and Pandas.

Various AI tools that I made for fun, including both frontend and backend.
